01 · THE COLLAB

TWO BAY AREA NATIVES.
One mission.

510 BAY AREA Society EST 2025 & BLACK GIRL CANCER CLUB BG BANGING ON CANCER

Mackenzie
FOUNDER, 510 SOCIETY

Britney Mullins
FOUNDER, BLACK GIRL CANCER CLUB

Mackenzie and Britney both grew up right here in the Bay. Now they're joining forces, bringing two women-led organizations together to unite women across Oakland and the Bay Area around one cause: breast cancer awareness.

We believe every woman deserves to know her body, catch changes early, and get care, with or without insurance. Pilates & Prosecco turns a workout into a lesson that can save a life, one sisterhood at a time.

04 · MEET THE HOST

510 Society
BAY AREA
EST 2025

510 Society is a Bay Area community bringing young professionals together through movement, wellness, and shared experiences.

We create intentional spaces for people to step away from the workday, reconnect with themselves, and connect with the people around them.

Our events blend wellness and social connection in ways that feel approachable, elevated, and genuinely community-driven — creating experiences where people can move their bodies, meet new people, and make space for life outside of work.

From Pilates & Prosecco to tennis, yoga, and other wellness-focused experiences, 510 Society is building a community around one simple idea:

When work ends, life begins.

Community · locals & transplants

Balance · work hard, touch grass

Good times · wellness should feel like a party

05 · MEET THE BENEFICIARY

BLACK GIRL Cancer Club.

Founded by survivor Britney Mullins, BGCC is a Bay Area health advocacy community and podcast. We offer peer support and education for women navigating cancer, and we make sure no one learns about her body too late.

The podcast
Real stories from women living it.

Peer support
A club you never asked to join, full of sisters who get it.

Education
Self-exams, family history, and care without insurance.

In the streets
From Oakland Lakefeast to your block.

"Banging on cancer, together."
